Takeda’s OnePath®
Co-pay Assistance Program

OnePath aims to ensure that the costs associated with treatment are never a barrier to patient access. The OnePath Co-pay Assistance Program helps cover certain out-of-pocket treatment costs for eligible, commercially insured patients who are enrolled in OnePath. This includes out-of-pocket expenses related to your treatment such as co-pays, coinsurance, and certain infusion charges (if applicable), up to the program maximum, regardless of financial status.

100% coverage of qualified co-pay expenses and certain infusion charges (if applicable)*†

For eligible, commercially insured OnePath patients, our co-pay assistance program covers out-of-pocket expenses related to your treatment for which there is a co-pay, such as deductibles and coinsurances, up to the program maximum.

*Subject to program terms, limits, and conditions

†IMPORTANT NOTICE: The OnePath Copay Assistance Program (the Program) is not valid for prescriptions eligible to be reimbursed, in whole or in part, by Medicaid, Medicare (including Medicare Part D), Tricare, Medigap, VA, DoD, or other federal or state programs (including any medical or state prescription drug assistance programs). No claim for reimbursement of the out-of-pocket expense amount covered by the Program shall be submitted to any third party payer, whether public or private. The Program cannot be combined with any other rebate/coupon, free trial, or similar offer. Copayment assistance under the Program is not transferable. The Program only applies in the United States, including Puerto Rico and other U.S. territories, and does not apply where prohibited by law, taxed, or restricted. This does not constitute health insurance. Void where use is prohibited by your insurance provider. If your insurance situation changes you must notify the Program immediately at 1-866-888-0660. Coverage of certain administration charges does not apply for patients residing in Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Rhode Island, and Vermont. Takeda reserves the right to rescind, revoke, or amend the Program at any time without notice.
